

Forward and Bio

Thanks for the inspiration: Irene James, Gillian Mary James, Cliff King, Stroud, Jo and Flo. Studied art at Hornsey College of Art but more recently Ceramics at Stroud College. Currently working in wood, ceramics, ink and oil, living and working around Stroud. Information is taken from the immediate environment whether a rural winters day, a rain swept town, portraits or live events. Increasingly the negative physical influences of human greed and ignorance are featuring as major influences. Retiring from the relentless drudgery of teaching in 2021 a late start to a new life as a full time artist began. The following is a selection of work during these initial two years.

Voluntary roles:

- · Organiser of the Gower Paint Out.
- Administrator for the UK Plein Air Artists Facebook
- Trustee and organiser of the Stroud Artists Cooperative
- Organiser of the SAC outdoor painting and sketching group

View work: The Crown, Frampton Mansell and Woodruffs Cafe, Stroud.
